Table of Contents

Foreword.......................................................................................................................... vii

Introduction......................................................................................................................... 1

Chapter 1  National Standards for the Preparation of Teachers of Gifted Students in Pre-K–Grade 12 Schools and Their Relationship to Quality Programming ......................... 5
Susan K. Johnsen, Joyce VanTassel-Baska, and Jane Clarenbach

Chapter 2  Developing Partnerships: Preparing Teachers to Serve Gifted Students in All Settings................................. 37
Alicia Cotabish, Debbie Dailey, and Nykela Jackson

Chapter 3  From Cacophony to Chorus: Collaborating in a Time of Multiple Standards.................................................. 53
Claire E. Hughes

Chapter 4  Identifying Outcomes for Professional Development........... 69
Elizabeth Shaunessy-Dedrick, Chrystyna V. Mursky, and Alicia Cotabish

Chapter 5  Effective Models for Designing Professional Development in Gifted Education ............................................. 89
Kimberley L. Chandler

Chapter 6  Designing Professional Development Activities ............... 109
Debra A. Troxclair, Elizabeth Shaunessy-Dedrick, and Chrystyna V. Mursky

Chapter 7  Assessment of the Effectiveness of Professional Development Activities......................................................... 127
Debra A. Troxclair and Chin-Wen Lee

Chapter 8  Making Change Happen: Implementing the Teacher Education Standards in the Real World of Education........ 155
Joyce VanTassel-Baska and Susan K. Johnsen
Chapter 9  Challenges and Prospects................................................................. 171
Susan K. Johnsen and Joyce VanTassel-Baska

Appendix A  Research Support for the 2013 Teacher Preparation Standards in Gifted and Talented Education............... 179

Appendix B  Classroom Observation Instruments ........................................ 231

Appendix C  Needs Assessment.................................................................. 269

Appendix D  Sample Professional Development Plan for Teachers of the Gifted and Talented ....................... 275

Appendix E  Sample Concept Maps............................................................... 279

About the Editors..................................................................................... 287

About the Authors.................................................................................. 289